“ Thank you for your hospitality. Thank you for your companionship on our rides. Thank you for showing me many new places. Thank you for your kindness. Thank you for helping me through some rough times. Thank you for making me smile. Thank you for your wisdom and words that I needed. Thank you for always being wiser, and not older. I am going to replace my picture with the one I had made for you. Time was so close. Most of all, thank you for being my friend. You will forever be in my heart and my heart from Bingo Mountain will forever be with me. You are such a special memory. So many special memories. Fly high.

“ Rest In Peace my new friend, it hurts my heart that I won't be able to see your smiling face when you come into my work, I'm delivering your refrigerator today and leaving a clown that I was giving you for your new home.. Blessed are the heavens now as you can continue to make people happy with no pain.. it was a pleasure knowing you for the short time I did. Prayers to all his family and friends And Bingo was his name. Love Teresa (your Home Depot buddy)

“ I will miss our regular visits and conversations. My dearest confidant. I can still see you now hanging out of the door of the Crippled Creek bus (when guides could do that sort of thing) coming around the Ocoee River put-in blowing your trumpet making your arrival. My heart is heavy but, blessed to work on the river, share laughter, joy, accomplishments and enjoy on going adventures with such a iconic being as you. See you on my next wave!! Ms Be
