“ Frankie, Robin, Sherry and Family,

I remember meeting your dad at a dinner at your sister's house. He sat opposite beside me at the family table. I remember him as being so sweet, the kindest "old" guy you could ever meet. I didn't have any family nearby, so it felt like home to me, because he reminded me of my Granddad AND Grandpa. it seems like there aren't people like him anymore, the sweetest, most genuine people. He ate a lot, lol! Thank you for sharing him with me! You and your family are good people!

Love you very, very much! God bless your sweet family, and may He keep you.

Love,

Wendy

“ Tom was always a fine soul. He went out of his way to help people in hard times. He served the Beaver family by shoufering all of us to make arrangements and anywhere we needed to go. When we lost Grady Beaver.

Tom was looked up to by all kids at Knox Chapel Church. My children always had a special place in their hearts for him.

Robin. Lily. Tabatha. TJ. Ect all of your family are in our prayers.
