“ I am so thankful that God brought Tommy into my life. He was a great co-worker and friend. He was such an inspiration to all of us. Tommy touched so many people with his generous compassion and caring. The world is a better place since Tommy was here. I will miss him but know he is with our Savior, he lived his faith and shared it with everyone.

*Please accept my sincere condolences for the passing of your beloved Thomas. I knew him as Tommy through school, believe Granite Quarry Elementary school and we both followed through and graduated from East Rowan, class of 1981. Tommy was one of the really, good guys growing up. Always kind.
May God comfort you all. I am truly sorry.
