“ I had the distinct honor to work with Tim in Davidson. While the company itself was the most horrible I ever worked in my entire career; Tim with his wit, humor and positive attitude certainly helped make it bearable. Rest in peace my friend!

“ When I exchanged texts with Tim the Thursday before he went to the hospital I had no idea we would never speak again. I met Tim in high school years ago in Texas. We became fast friends. He was hilarious, giving, the kind of person who was always there for you, and his interactions were peppered with southernisms like “hon” and “sweetie.” He taught me about important staples like Cheerwine and Price’s chicken. I taught him about Indian food more recently.

We reconnected after my move to Greenville. I can’t imagine that I will never have another Charlotte dinner with him, laughing and having discussions about our families and lives. Or hearing him tell me to be careful on the road and sending me off to Greenville with one of his hugs.

Tim was one of the best examples of living like Christ that I know. He spread laughter, fun, and compassion everywhere he went. He placed his family as his high priority. I’ll miss him immensely. Godspeed, my friend. I’ll see you again.

“ I am so glad God allowed Tim to cross paths with me. I will miss his strolls through home office to grab the the mail, but mainly to get a cup of our good coffee :). He of course would stop to chat, as we know Tim always had a good story to share. I remember his excitement as he prepared for his Alaska trip or as we talked about singing. He was such a wonderful embodiment of who Christ would want us to be. We will miss his smile, but find peace in knowing that he is spending eternity in his mansion on the hill. My prayers of comfort remain for all of those who are mourning the loss of such an amazing man.

“ You were taken much too soon, but I know God realized your suffering and knew in His hands you would be better. You were one of the greatest role models in my life and I can't wait for the day I see you, Memaw, Pawpaw and Matt and tell y'all how grateful I was for your life lessons. I always told you that I would never watch any of the Star Trek movies EVER but for you I will watch every last one before this year ends. I love and miss you birthday twin “ Prayers for comfort from our family to yours. I didn't know Tim for very long but when I met him I could tell he was different. His Unwavering faith was evident in the happiness and friendliness he shared every time I saw him. May God bless you and comfort you and know that Tim is in His heavenly kingdom.

“ Phil and I send our heartfelt condolences to Mary Ann, David, Andrew and the remainder of the family. Tim was one of the sweetest people I have ever known. He loved his Lord and I know he is enjoying being with Jerry and Pat so much right now. He also had one of the most amazing tenor voices and it was an honor to have sung with him. Tim, your shoes will be impossible to fill. Rest in peace.
