“ Got to miss you so much Uncle Bruce.... We might have seen each other in a few years but the last time I saw you was a few months ago in the grocery store and you could barely lift your head up but when you did you smiled at me and nodded your head and I knew what that meant. And I nodded mine back. That was our way of saying hi and we love each other. We might not have actually said words to one another but we knew what we were saying to one another... Will never forget you.. You are a role model and a father figure to me after Daddy and I couldn't have asked for a better one...
