

Tina Marie Davis

May 30, 1960 - June 24, 2021

Tina Marie Davis, 61, of Statesville, North Carolina, passed away on June 24, 2021. She was born on May 30, 1960, in St. Petersburg, FL to Elaine Kyles Davis and the late Michael Davis.

Tina had a green thumb and loved working with plants and flowers. She was especially talented in bringing a plant back to life. She enjoyed her career working at Food Lion and Angel Care Veterinary. Tina never met a stranger and was mom, sister and friend to many. She loved traveling to the beach and hunting for shells and shark teeth. She reconnected with her faith and was a member of Fallstown Baptist Church. Tina loved her family dearly and would help anyone any way that she could. She was a strong woman who fought a courageous battle with cancer and did not want that to be her identifier. No matter what appointment during her illness that she attended, she always had a smile on her face and a very positive attitude.

In addition to her father, she was preceded in death by grandparents, Harold and Ruth Kyles and Clarence and Catherine Davis.

In addition to her mother, she is survived by daughters, Kristin Price White (Andrew) and Sara Price; sisters, Jackie McCall (Frank), Linda Caron (Charlie); brother, Brad Davis (Stephanie); numerous cousins, nieces and nephews; her fur baby, Maggie; and her grand-fur babies, Witten, Willow and Banjo.

“ Tina was one of the kindest, sweetest, warm hearted people we have ever met. We are so glad to have had her as our friend! Even through her own struggles she would send out beautiful texts filled with inspiration and hope. There is no doubt in our minds she is in Heaven smiling that beautiful smile of hers!

Tina was such an inspiration to me. She sent me the most beautiful posts from the heart. She had an enormous heart filled with love. She trusted God to bring her through her many trials and tribulations. Unfortunately...I am in Ohio supporting my son in the loss of his wife, but, I am at her Celebration of Life in spirit. She is my forever friend in Jesus the Christ. I hope you can be my guide or angel until we meet again. Love forever. ❤️❤️❤️

So sad to hear about Tina. Her messages and calls were filled with kindness. She truly was the smiling angel everyone describes here. I know she is in Jesus' arms, and he is rejoicing to have her suffering over, and to have her joy in heaven begin.

“ We are deeply saddened to learn of Tina's passing. She had a beautiful heart and may her wonderful soul shine brightly through Kristin & Sara. Tina always put others' needs in front of her own. She was beyond generous with her compliments and her perpetual kindness and gentle nature was always present. Her outer smile was amplified through her sincere inner love of people and animals. Tina was a treasured friend and will live forever in our hearts. In Deepest Sympathy, Dave & Carolyn
