

Tina Hodges

July 24, 1963 - May 22, 2026

Tina Pardue Hodges, 62, formerly of Wilkesboro, North Carolina, and most recently of Fancy Gap, Virginia, passed away on May 22, 2026.

Born on July 24, 1963, Tina was the daughter of Betty Davidson and Jimmy Pardue. A small-town girl whose well-known race car-driving father passed away when she was just one year old, Tina grew up surrounded by the love of her family, including her brothers, Kevin Pardue and Gary Pardue, who shared those early years with her. From her childhood in Elkin to embracing the expansion of her family through her stepfather, Bill Davidson, and stepbrothers, Daryl and Carlton, Tina lived a life rooted in love, resilience, and adventure.

She pursued her culinary dreams in San Francisco, where her adventurous spirit continued to shape her life. Back in North Carolina, Tina was later introduced to her beloved husband, Tony Hodges, and the rest was history. Together, they built a life centered around family, love, and cherished memories.

Tina deeply loved her four children and the two in-laws who became part of her family, Lydia and Nick. She also adored her six grandchildren; Sydney, Maddox, Grayson, Abby, Tanner, and Reid, who brought immense joy to her life. Those who knew Tina knew her generous heart and warm spirit. She loved photography, caring for her family, and making friends and loved ones feel welcomed, valued, and deeply cared for.

Tina was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Tony Hodges; her brothers, Gary Pardue and Daryl Davidson; and her father, Jimmy Pardue, mother, Betty Davidson, and stepfather Bill Davidson.

She is survived by her sons, Jamie Hodges and Caleb Hodges, and by Jennifer Mayhew and TJ Hodges, whom she loved and cared for as her own, along with many other relatives and dear friends who will miss her greatly.
