“ Sharon, I am so VERY, VERY sorry. Troy and I got along like father and son for 20 or more years. Each time together we caught up about the last few months, joked and laughed together, and basically just had quality time with one another. All I ever had to do was just see Troy's name and it would bring a smile and calm to my face. We spoke of so many things, Troy's work, driving, cars, and so much more. I didn't take long at all to realize that I always wanted a lot of time to spend with Troy and we always got a lot of time to do just that. It was more about life than care alone that mattered. I am deeply saddened yet equally delighted to know how blessed I was to have such a kind, wonderful, one of a kind man be a (big) part of my life. I pray that the LORD be with you every second of every day reminding you of his certain love and promise of eternal life. Troy, until we meet again, I know we will both have many stories to share. With love.

Troy was one of the best neighbor's ever. We all loved to see his smiling face out walking Katie as we drove down our street. He was a great guy and would do anything for anybody. He loved to chit chat and tell great stories. He surely will be missed. Our thoughts and prayers are with Sharon and the family.
