“ My heart goes out to ALL the family and friends whom were so close to Vicky. Our history goes way back but we’ve lost touch in recent years. She was a truly wonderful person who loved her family and her yard. She had a SpEclAL creative flair and was so down to earth. I watched the BeAuTiFuL service and loved the song at the end...So Powerful🙏 May you All continue to carry that “piece of her” in your hearts and “Share His Love” in her honor💕 Special Memories are truly precious as it’s the “quality time” that is a reminder of how Great God IS🙏 She is now with Jesus and back with Dennis, the LOVE of her Life💙💕 They were Sooooo Good ToGeThEr!!! God Bless you ALL as you continue to remember our Most SoEclAL Vicky and carry on her Love for others💕 Take Good Care!!!

“ Vicki was a loving wife mother, grand-mother and friend. I looked at Vicki and Dennis not only as friends first but also family. Vicki and I could talk for hours and she had great advice on life. I am truly sorry I cannot be there today it breaks my heart. My love and prayers go out to the entire family. Vicki loved God and I know that when she passed not only was she excited to see the Lord but also Dennis who I know was waiting to welcome his Scarlet home!
