“ My mom always was telling memories she had from dear Vida (she calls her Mehri Khanum) and I felt like I know her since childhood although I only could meet her once when I was in my thirties. When she saw me she said I feel like I have seen the whole family now. May she rest in peace.
My mom (Aunt Shokooh) stayed tonight to attend dear Vida's funeral live stream, but her internet connection was poor and couldn't watch. She sent her love to dear Fariba and all her beautiful family.

“ Greg and I are so sorry for your loss. Vida was a kind, vibrant and loving person. We met her at Planet Fitness and shared many pleasant exchanges. We brought her to St. Therese for Thanksgiving one year and she was so appreciative of the loving service provided by the volunteers there. We prayed with her and feel confident that she made her peace with God before she left this earth. What a wonderful legacy she has left behind.
