

Walter John Baureis

June 28, 1922 - December 15, 2018

Walter John Baureis (96), of Cape May, NJ, passed away peacefully on December 15, at The Pines, with family members at his side. He was born in Newark, NJ. He graduated from Madison High School and began working at Picatinny Arsenal as a machinist. He served as a WWII sailor stationed in Hilo, HI and Midway Island. After retiring as an aerospace engineer for Kearfott Corporation, he managed a machine shop in Pinellas Park, Florida before returning to NJ. Settling in Cape May, NJ, he was active in several senior associations. He enjoyed working in his garden, walking his Scottish terrier, and his weekly trips to Atlantic City. A life-long golfer, his enthusiasm for sports included softball, bowling, and dancing. An avid do-it-yourselfer, Walt was an accomplished handyman.

He was predeceased by his brother, George Baureis, his sister, Viola Rondeau, and his beloved wife, Agnes.

He is survived by his children Maryellen (David) Howard, Elizabeth (Marshall) Kohlen, and Thomas (Karla) Baureis; his grandchildren Christine, Thomas, John, Cindy, Jackie, Kristen, Amanda and Keegan; and great-grandchildren Tiernan and Nathan.

Interment will be on January 4, 2019 at 11:00 am, at the Cape May Veteran's Cemetery in New Jersey.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to "Welcome Home Veterans," at 165 N Main Street, Mooresville, NC 28115.
