“ I met Wayne in October 2022 when he showed me a house I was looking at buying (the house he grew up in nonetheless) and we sat and talked for an hour or more. We hit it off right away and became friends from that moment on.

When I would call him he would say, RACH with a big laugh! And it made me so happy to have a nickname. I loved listening to his stories, especially about him growing up on a tobacco farm, his years building Tar Heel Lumber, his knowledge on real estate, and his love for his family and grandchildren. He was so full of life and had such a fun personality.

My prayers go out to the family, and even though I know Wayne will be missed greatly, I pray that the love of our Lord and Savior will be of comfort, knowing that he is in heaven playing baseball and doing all the things he loved! Looking forward to seeing him again.

In Christ,
Rachel Homesley

“ Wayne and I met in the 8th grade and remained friends all our lives. We were in the same class at Troutman High and played sports together. We lost touch until 20 years ago and enjoyed many day trips together. He was a kind, generous and caring man and I will miss him. Due to travel complications I will not be able to attend his,service but I do want to offer my condolences to his family.

We got had rented a house in Statesville NC and he was the best landlord he and my husband became really good friend's, he came in a limo and picked up our granddaughter and a couple of her friends I believe she was around 6--7 but that made her day. I know he's going to be missed and my husband will meet him in heaven he passed last February.

Wayne was a great guy. We played many basketball games in the old Troutman gym. Last May I ran into him at Gregg's in Statesville...he was having breakfast, 2 pork chops. So glad we got to spend time together then.
