

Wilhelmina Irene Rhodes

February 5, 1929 - August 30, 2021

Wilhelmina "Micki" Irene Rhodes was a caring wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt and friend. She left this world on August 30, 2021 at age 92.

Micki was born to Edwin and Luemma Hooks on February 5, 1929, the 2nd of her four siblings, Evelyn, Ginny & Ted. After graduating from high school, she pursued a career at General Motors as a billing supervisor where she met her husband, Richard "Dick" Rhodes. Together, they raised their son Gary, of whom was their proudest accomplishment. Upon retiring at General Motors, Micki moved from Michigan to warm, sunny Florida, which she considered her favorite place on earth.

Micki is survived by her son Gary, daughter-in-law Pat and her brother Ted. She was "grams" to her granddaughter Misty & husband George, & great-grandma to Cameron, Julia, Hannah & Grace.

Micki loved golfing, dancing, playing bingo & spending time outdoors. She particularly enjoyed bragging about her age, & even at the age of 92, still received numerous compliments about how she looked much younger than she was. She was generous, fun-loving, independent and quite a character, who had a sway in her step & loved to show off her youthful demeanor every chance she could. She will be missed beyond measure.

A celebration of Micki's life will be held in the coming weeks.

In lieu of flowers, please donate to the Crohn's & Colitis Foundation on her behalf.
