

William "Sandy" Church

January 23, 1947 - October 3, 2023

William Buck Church Jr, known to many as Sandy, beloved resident of Mooresville, NC, avid Tarheel fan, and bad ass Marine, passed away peacefully in the morning of October 3rd. He was surrounded in love and appreciation while snuggled warmly under his Marine Corp blanket.

His spirit is carried on by his wife of over 52 years, Carey, and his son Chris and daughter Kathy, who have both developed complexes over how they are ever going to live up to his legendary status. Additionally, he leaves behind his loving daughter-in-law, Amber Hager Church and loyal son-in-law, Ted Hathcock. The lights of his life were his grandchildren Colby, Arden, Christopher, and Caroline. His sister Jane Hendrix, brother Jack Church, numerous nieces and nephews, and half the population of Mooresville are left with precious memories.

He is reunited with both his parents, William Buck Church and Joncie Nantz Church, who we know welcomed him with open arms and a hot dog all the way.

Sandy graduated from Mooresville Senior High in 1965, attended Mitchell Community College in Statesville, and joined the Marine Corp that later took him to Vietnam during which he "accidentally" blew up a water buffalo with a grenade launcher. He married Carey Belk after spotting her at the local What-a-Burger. He became Athletic Director at the Mooresville Recreation Department where he served for 22 years, umpired or refereed literally every child who played Mooresville rec ball in the late 80s and early 90s, and became the first director at the Charles Mack Citizens Center on Main Street. After "retiring" Dad effortlessly held jobs at World Market where he may or may not have bought his family members merchandise at the employee discount and then at the local ABC store. He knew everyone and everyone knew him. Genealogy was his passion, and he had us related to so many people that Chris and Kathy seriously considered DNA tests before marrying their spouses.

Dad taught us many things in his life including...

Always pull for the Carolina Tarheels or anyone who is playing Duke.

Marines are the toughest branch. All others are second rate.

Play sports.

Life is too short not to eat cookies.

When driving through a tunnel, beep your horn.

The best shows are I Love Lucy, Andy Griffith, Gomer Pyle: USMC, Bonanza, and Gunsmoke.

Drive like it's the Daytona 500 when taking your daughter, who is in labor, to the hospital.

Thank the Veteran when you see them; they deserve it.

Overspend at Christmas. Every year.

Always show up.

He was everything a good person is. Our hero until the end. He will be missed beyond measure. Heaven just got a whole lot cooler.

Semper Fi, Dad.

“ Growing up in Mooresville, Sandy was such a great mentor to so many young people. I had no idea he had served in Vietnam. But definitely knew he was a Carolina fan. What a great life. Will be missed.

“ I got to know Sandy as a little leaguer with the Mooresville Recreation Department. He was an umpire and he played ball in the early 70s where I watched my first baseball games live. A good friend over the years. My prayers are with his Family.

“ Frankie loved growing up a few doors up from the Church family. While reading Sandy's obituary/tribute to Frankie this morning, we both cried and laughed at the same time because much of what Chris shared about his dad sounded like Frankie: the Tarheels, play sports, TV shows, overspend at Christmas! Chris, your tribute showed pure love for your dad❤️ Prayers for you all!

“ My Uncle Sandy was larger than life he'd take us on tractor rides through the property when Chris, Kathy and I were kids. He amazed us all with not only his knowledge of history but how he took ancestry research to the next level..I never knew that the Belk family was related to so many people. My fondest memory was when my daughters were babies and we met him and Aunt Carey at Myrtle Beach he was the only one they wanted to hold them, he was their Marine. He also made sure to take them on a hay ride for their 1st 4th of July back home. He will always be in our hearts not only as an uncle but as a fellow veteran, when I decided to go in the Air Force he agreed with my Papaw that it was substandard to the Marine Corps. We will miss you and we will always love you.

Your niece,
Pam
