

Wilma Chapman Key

November 8, 1928 - March 1, 2018

Wilma Chapman Key, 89, of Mooresville, passed away on Thursday, March 1, 2018 at her residence. She was born on November 8, 1928 in Rowan County, to the late Weldon and Minnie Thornburg Chapman. Mrs. Key was retired from Cannon Mills. She was a member of Faith Baptist Church in Kannapolis after her husband retired from the ministry. She served alongside her husband supporting him in his ministry and was a Sunday School teacher for many years. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by four brothers and one sister. She is survived by her husband of 71 years, Rev. Weldon "Whick" Key; daughter, Nancy Pauley and husband, Rev. James M. Pauley of Mooresville; grandson, Andrew Pauley and wife, Marie; and great grandchildren, Nolan and Andi. The family will receive friends on Saturday, March 3 from 11:00-12:45 PM with a service following at 1:00 PM at Faith Baptist Church, Kannapolis, with Rev. James M. Pauley officiating. Burial will follow the service at Carolina Memorial Park in Concord. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Faith Baptist Church, 904 Chipola Street, Kannapolis, NC 28083 or Hospice & Palliative Care of Iredell County, 2347 Simonton Road, Statesville, NC 28625. Cavin-Cook Funeral Home & Crematory, Mooresville, is serving the Key family. Condolences may be made to the family at www.cavin-cook.com.

“ *I just learned that Wilma passed away and it broke my heart. My late Mom (Peggy Sherrill) and Wilma were best friends. I attended First Free Will Baptist Church for many years after my Mom passed away so my Dad wouldn't have to sit alone in church. There was no one who was any sweeter than Wilma. I never heard the first negative word about this lovely, Christian, Godly woman. I know she is in a better place and I know she and my Mom are having a grand old time up there. My condolences to the family and again, had I known, I would have been to her viewing and funeral service. With deepest sympathy and love,
