“ I dont know you or your family but saw the Mooresville Weekly and came online to support you and your family. I personally know the pain and grief you are going through. My deepest condolences to you and your family and know that you now have your very own personal guardian angel who will forever change the way you look at life AND death. Their death is not in vein. Dont be afraid to talk about your son even if your friends or family do not know what to say or say the wrong thing. Many do not know what to say. Do whatever it is you need to do do grieve at anytime and keep your loved ones close to you. IF you ever need to talk to someone, I can suggest a group I am in on facebook which greatly helped me. I know it may be too soon. I will leave my email. Again, your precious Wyatt is in my prayers and now my daughter Angel Marie has a new playmate. God Bless You all. Vivian ()

“ My sweet sweet Wyatt , my heart is so broken. As I held u in my arms all I could do was cry and ask God why. Was so ready to welcome you into the world, to see you grow, to see you and Hunter playing together like cousins should, to see ur smile, to see ur bright eyes, never in a million years would I have thought I would be kissing ur face and telling you goodbye. I'll never be ready to say goodbye, as ur Aunt I will always carry u close to my heart! I'll pray and talk to you every day, you will never be forgotten. You hold a special place in my heart sweet boy and I'll never let you go. I love you more than you could ever imagine. God gained an amazing angel the day he took you away! love you always and forever!
