“ I had Zach in my 2 year class @ Family Child Development Center. I still can remember things he would say ... that made us laugh. Loving and caring & especially precious child. I would see him in the pet store. Praying for his dear family. May God Bless you. Send my love also. I was just thinking of him the other day.

Zack was a very close friend of mine. He sat near the front of the Church and I almost always got a chance to speak to me. He was a very friendly little Man. I know he is happy to be with Mrs. Bernice in his heavenly home. May God Bless his family that were always there for him.
