I remember Uncle Deb and Aunt Katherine so well. Neil enjoyed visiting with them so much. Aunt Katherine could make anything taste good. Neil enjoyed talking and listening to Uncle Zeb. He could make and fix anything. And yes he adored his daughter so very much. He was definitely a good man He will be missed by all. Love and Prayers. 🙏🙏

*“ Jill,
You know the many beautiful memories we have of both your parents from long ago, I consider both Zeb and Catherine to be examples of Christian souls who showed me how to walk the talk. Both were precious people, your daddy being a quiet, gentle spirit who always did what was right. May he rest in eternal peace alongside your mama. May you have peace in the days ahead.
Love,
Donna*
